at Embassy Suites, San Luis Obispo*

11th Annual Professional Advisors Luncheon

Each year, The Community Foundation convenes professional advisors – including attorneys, accountants, bankers, and financial advisors – from across San Luis Obispo County in recognition of our valued partnership with professional advisors in their service to charitable clients. The keynote speakers share their expertise in the fields of finance and charitable giving with more than 100 luncheon attendees.

This important educational and networking opportunity will be held on Friday, October 29, 2021 in an effort to keep local professional advisors abreast of topics in the fields of philanthropy and community leadership. Networking time prior to the program will be available for those who are interested will be start at 11:00 am.
